WHEREAS, Juan Bautista de Anza, an early explorer that traveled through the Valley, created the De Anza trail and later founded San Francisco; and

WHEREAS, Jose Antonio Estudillo, an early settler, started the first school in San Jacinto, a private school in his home for his own children; and

WHEREAS, we do not want to forget the sacrifices of those that came before us, but rather we want to celebrate their successes.

NOW THEREFORE, the San Jacinto Unified School District Board of Trustees proclaims October as Heritage Month, on this 8th day of September, 2020.

The background of the page features a large, light gray watermark of the San Jacinto Unified School District (SJUSD) logo. The logo consists of a circular emblem with a mountain range and a sun rising over it. The text "EXCELLENCE AND EQUITY IN EDUCATION" is curved along the top of the emblem, and "SJUSD" is written in large, bold letters across the middle. Below the emblem, the text "SAN JACINTO UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT" is written in a smaller font.
