9. PUBLIC RELATIONS

9.1. Student Board Member Update and Recognition

Minutes:

San Jacinto High School Board Member Precious King reported on the following: Excited to be back in person to give my report. We have more students on campus and are continuing to boost morale. I was able to attend several meetings including the Town Hall meeting which will cater to students that did well with distance learning. I am pleased that I will be back next year.

9.2. Board Member and Cabinet Reports and Comments

Minutes:

Assistant Superintendent of Ed Services John Roach commented on the following: 11th grade are taking CAASPP and 3rd, 5th and 7th are taking iReady; we are trying to get the word out about our new distance learning school offering either self-paced or teacher paced instruction (we have a lot of information on the website); we are excited that we have students back at every grade level, very proud of our teachers and administrators; we will have summer school both hybrid for in-person and distance learning; we are expanding Hyatt and SJLA by adding a grade to each; we will be expanding time for learning loss over the next year with a grant you will see on the agenda tonight.

Deputy Superintendent of Personnel Dr. Smith commented on the following: We have three additional retirees and nine resignations (two are a mother and son that are moving up north to do consulting); we are doing recruitment and have some crucial jobs to fill; we recently had a drive-by sub mixer sponsored by Sonic; It is staff appreciation week and Ruth delivered gifts to every site; we held our first affinity group this week and had 19 participants looking at retention and recruiting.

Assistant Superintendent of Business Seth Heeren commented we had our kickoff meeting on Facilities Planning this week; we are wrapping up SJLA and MVMS; shoutout to City of San Jacinto for reaching out to us for student art - we chose art from Ms. Anaya Crouch and it will go up at 5 corners to cover utility boxes; the Fun Run culminates on Saturday, you can still sponsor a student.

Board Member Jeremy Fontes commented on the excitement of seeing the new MVMS and expansion of SJLA come to fruition.

Board Member Jasmin Rubio commented on the following: we shared our Soboba Aquatics and the football game with Dr. Gomez; congratulations to the DAC meeting, it was very informative; Thank-you we have a contract with NAMI and after taking the classes with NAMI they are very professional and they have very informational classes through YouTube; thank you Dr. Pyle for going every Friday to SJHS to help with the food distribution.

President Rex commented on the following: I'm wearing my swim t-shirt and am so excited to attend the swim meets; we have some amazing basketball players and a great coach; Surprising Steve Simpson on his award was great; the sub drive-thru was awesome; when Dr. Gomez came we also showed off our weight room. Thank-you Mr. Roach for your work on the new distance learning school. Dr. Pyle is coming up on his first year anniversary - thank you!

Board Member Trica Ojeda commented on the swim meet and how great it was; also all the accomplishments we have done this year is great; I enjoyed the town hall meeting, it was great; Thank-you Seth for the large screen for MVHS and a regular graduation.

Board Member Sandra Penaloza commented on loving to attend the DAC Meeting; Enjoyed the Town Hall meeting and glad we can provide opportunities for all students; Glad to attend the Citrus Hills game and they lost and Dr. Gomez was there; I've had an opportunity to view two senior projects and they were very professional and they were pristine products and kudos to Principal Hall.

Board Member Rubio has a question re. when MVHS was vandalized has it been replaced? Yes, and when the students get an opportunity to get the aquaponics up and going you can reach out to Mrs. Hill to arrange a tour for the Board.

9.3. Superintendent's Report and Comments

Minutes:

Superintendent Dr. Pyle: I want to apologize to our teaching staff, we did not overlook you last week, we took action to adopt May 12 the California Day of the Teacher and last week was National Teacher appreciation, we did not forget you. Also, April 30 was Principal Appreciation Day and I want to show our appreciation to our wonderful principals. Thank you for the Sonic Substitute Appreciation. I want to thank Ed Services for their hard work on the new distance learning school, we have had over 400 inquiries with appx. 120 that are interested. Thank-you to Mrs. Gordon for her interest in ensuring our students are safe, we will be visiting campuses later this week. We visited Murrieta and saw that everyone is struggling with this. I wanted to let you know that MVMS did get feedback from staff, students and community on their logo and it was brought back.
